Your application to perform electronic notarizations has been approved by the Secretary of State's Office. You may begin using it as of the date of this letter.

Your electronic notary seal must include the following information.

Please review the above information for any errors. If you find any errors please contact our office. After your stamp is made, please check it to make sure that all information is correct.

If you would like to be authorized for remote online notarization ("RON") or remote ink notarization ("RIN"), please email your preferences to Notary@wvsos.gov.

Remember, READ THE NOTARY LAWS. Being a notary, you are entrusted with a great responsibility for ensuring that signatures are valid on the documents you will be notarizing, and that the notarial act you perform is done according to the notary laws set forth in West Virginia Code §39-4.

Failure to provide a proper notary acknowledgement on documents is a violation of the notary code and may result in having your notary commission conditioned, suspended, or revoked.

There are specific rules relating to E-notarizations. To view a copy of the rule relating to "Standards and Guidelines for Electronic Notarizations" - Legislative Rule 153-45, visit the Secretary of State's website at www.wvsos.com.

Sincerely,
Notary Division
